

Rolfe's Introduction – International

Today we will hear from a man with a unique perspective. Rolfe Carawan is an award-winning coach, counselor and successful businessman in America. He is the author of two books, Profiles in Character and The Character Revolution.

As President of Carawan Global Communications and Consulting, Rolfe is in high demand as a speaker for organizations that value their greatest asset...their people!

The “coach” in him will challenge and motivate us to take a road less traveled. The “counselor” will give us the tools and understanding we need to continue on that road.

Though he has received numerous honors, his most cherished honor was being designated “Dad of the Year” by his 7-year-old daughter!

However... as a teenager, his daughter now disavows ever having given such an award. (pause)

Known for his warmth, humor and insight; please join me in welcoming Rolfe Carawan...
